WRAP UP OF THE SEASON

Port Arthur Pops, Lamar State College-Port Arthur

The Symphony of Southeast Texas was pleased to present "Port Arthur Pops", a symphonic pops concert free of charge.

A special addition to SOST's 65th Anniversary season, the concert took place on Friday, May 11th 7:30 at Lamar State College-Port Arthur's Performing Arts Theater.

This free concert was part of the Symphony's mission to truly reach a greater audience.

Thanks to a generous gift by the Community Concert Association of Southeast Texas to the Wilton and Effie Mae Hebert Foundation, along with further funding from Motiva Corporation, the symphony was pleased to present a one hour program.

The program was filled with favorites of Henry Mancini, Duke Ellington, and John Williams. Maestro Tipton joined in the fun playing Leroy Anderson's Clarinet Candy!

The concert included patriotic favorites of John Phillip Sousa, and also had Dr. Sam Monroe making his SOST conducting debut!

A word from Maestro Chelsea Tipton ~ Celebrating 10 Years!

Serving as Music Director for your Symphony of Southeast Texas is the highlight of my musical career. The orchestra continues to amaze me with their talents, dedication and sense of adventure. The following outlines the music and artists we have planned for next season. I look at this as a wonderful present; my good friend Byron Stripling will be bringing his "Louis and Ella" for the American Songbook, music we've never done before, like Ravel's Daphnis and Chloe, having the chance to work again with the Beaumont Civic Ballet doing the music of George Gershwin and when in Texas, you gotta have The Texas Tenors!

We thank you for your support, and I look forward to seeing you at the Julie!
